FIFTEEN CENTS

Sign Law Is Finally Passed

One Liner

Even a fish won't get caught if he keeps his mouth shut.

'Capers' Opens Saturday

It opens Saturday night, Aug. 21, at the Antioch High School auditorium!

It's "Colonial Capers '76," a musical spoof of the American Revolution.

Staged by Doctors James Kopriva and Al Bucar, the show begins at 8 o'clock and features an "all-star cast" of Antioch "village luminaries, dashing dandies, winsome wenches and madcap musicians." (Well, that's the way the good doctors describe it.)

If the production is as much fun as the rehearsals have been, the audience is in for a lot of laughs. There's some talent in the cast, too - some of the community's finest singers, actors and dancers.

Tickets are available for $2 at all three Antioch financial institutions and will be sold at the door on Saturday night. The "capers" will also be presented on Saturday, Aug. 28, at 8 p.m.

Proceeds will be given to the Antioch Bicentennial Commission to help complete its sawmill restoration project.

Downtown's Appearance To Change

By 1981 you won't recognize downtown Antioch.

The village board passed the new (or should we say old?) sign ordinance Monday night, 5-0.

"This thing has been going on for three years," said trustee Mike Haley, "I move we amend the zoning ordinance regarding that section which relates to signs."

Trustee Bill Seemann seconded the motion but said he wondered if the Chamber of Commerce knew how many business signs in the downtown area would have to come down within five years.

BILL PATTERSON, representing the Chamber of Commerce, said:

"I think, after reviewing it, the Chamber will want you to pass it. If any business changes hands before the five-year limit is up, its sign must be changed to conform. I think a great percentage of your non-conforming signs will be taken care of in this manner in the next five years."

The ordinance requires that all signs be placed flat against a building or designed as part of the building's architectural feature.

THE ORDINANCE outlaws signs that "project into or over

Fun on Thursday: 'Midnight Madness'

The "pajama game" on Antioch's downtown streets Thursday night is not to be confused with the musical comedy "Pajama Game" presented here recently by PM&L Theater.

This week's event is an annual highlight of Midnight Madness, the Chamber of Commerce and Industry's madcap August frolic.

People are invited to come downtown in their pajamas for the contest that begins at 10:45 p.m. Miss Illinois (Betsy Joy Jamison of Mundelein) will award prizes and all contestants will receive coupons redeemable for a free ice cream cone at White's Ice Cream Parlor.

AFTER BEING open as usual during the day, the downtown stores will reopen from 7 p.m. till 12 midnight for the summer's final clearance sales.

Shoppers, as well as pajama wearers, will flock to the downtown area to take advantage of the bargains.

Miss Illinois will arrive at 6:45 p.m. and will be stationed near the water tower on Broadway St. She will autograph photos of herself supplied by the Chamber free-of-charge.

The Scarlet Knights drum and bugle corps will give a performance on Broadway St. at 8 p.m.

Square dancers will perform

TWO ANTIOCH and three Lake Villa students will be attending college this fall on scholarships from Abbott Laboratories.

The firm's student aid program grants scholarships to sons and daughters of Abbott employees. A total of 342 are benefitting this year.

They include Patrick Fucela of Antioch, who will attend the University of North Alabama, and Gregory Grunow of Antioch, who will continue his studies at Eastern Illinois University.

From Lake Villa, Joanne Adams received a scholarship at Carthage College in Kenosha; Wendy Kick will attend the College of Lake County, and Timothy McCarley will attend the University of North Alabama.

TIMOTHY MORAN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert S. Moran of 483 First St., Antioch, has received a new assignment following graduation from the jet engine mechanic course conducted by the Air Training Command at Chanute, Ill.

Airman Moran, now trained to inspect and repair turbojet and gas turbine engines, will go to Kadena Air Base in Okinawa for duty with a unit of the Pacific Air Forces.

Timothy is a 1974 graduate of Michigan Lutheran Seminary in Saginaw, Mich.

That's what Steve Rzyzsko sings to Jennifer Bellucci as they rehearse one of their parts for "Colonial Capers '76," which opens at 8 p.m. Saturday night at the Antioch High School auditorium. Mr. Rzyzsko displays a splendid voice and Miss Bellucci also shows her dancing skills in a "musical spoof" written by Doctors Jim Kopriva and Al Bucar. Sharon Krom Named to School Board Sharon R. Krom, of 2323 Beck Rd., Lindenhurst, has been named to the board of education of Antioch Grade School District 34.

Mrs. Krom replaces LaVerne Woods, who resigned recently. She will serve until the school Board President Gail Heath said Mrs. Krom has been active in programs as a volunteer at Oakland School.

THE BOARD also has scheduled a "working budget session" for Thursday night, Aug.

26. A public hearing on the district's 1976-77 budget has been set for Sept. 14.

The board approved the contract of Linda Lucke to work in the Upper Grade School library for a salary of $10,982 a year.

Beverly Lynch was hired at a salary of $10,819 as a co-operative teacher for Emmons, Grass Lake, Millburn and Newport schools.

Also at its Aug. 10 meeting, the board increased the salary of William Nauman, school treasurer, from $1,200 to $1,300 for the coming fiscal year.

Village Passes Sign Ordinance

an abutting public right-of-way."

Certain types of signs will be prohibited. These include "animated or intensely lighted signs," in other words, signs that have flashing, scintillating, blinking or traveling lights.

The code also calls for the removal of signs that advertise an activity, business, product or service no longer conducted or available on the premises.

Swinging signs will also be outlawed.

The ordinance will affect many of the signs presently advertising businesses in downtown Antioch.

The ordinance also requires that all signs in the village be maintained in good structural condition and kept neatly painted.

THE VILLAGE planning commission had suggested that signs that were in violation would have to be removed within three years, but the village board extended that time to five years.

"Certainly," said Haley, "we want to take down non-conforming and unsafe signs, and also regulate the new signs. Hopefully, in the next five years, we'll have a lot of new signs in Antioch."

"How much teeth do we have in this thing?" asked trustee Irv Walsh.

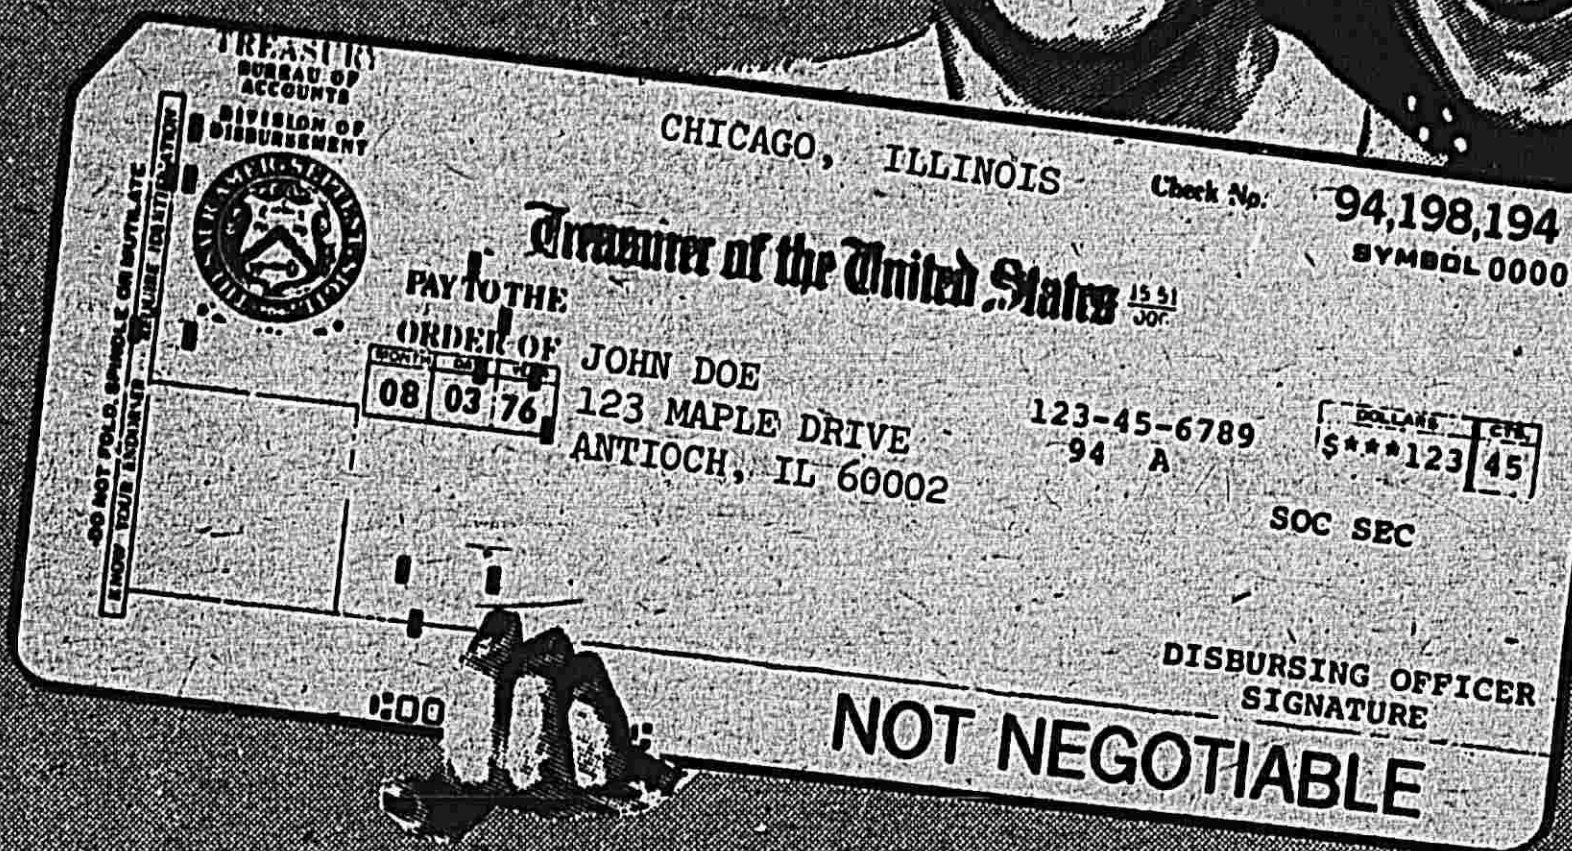

"I think it is enforceable."

said village attorney Andrew C. Lynch.

"We've been hammering away at this for three years," said Haley. "If we don't pass it we've wasted the time of the planning commission and the zoning board."

"I think the village will look beautiful without all those signs hanging out there," he added.

Voters Sometimes Scare The H--- Out of Us

Forty years ago, in 1936, the name Franklin D. Roosevelt was magical.

There was no way anyone could beat him as he sought a second term as President of the United States. He won by landslide.

The vast majority of American voters didn't realize what was happening to the country.

But Roosevelt's opponent knew. When he accepted the Republican nomination, Alf M. Landon, then governor of Kansas, said:

"THERE NOW HAS APPEARED in high places ... a new and dangerous impulse. This is the impulse to take away and lodge in the Chief Executive without the people's consent, the powers which they have kept in their state governments or which they have reserved in themselves.

"In its ultimate effect upon the welfare of the whole people, this then is the most important question before us: Shall we continue to delegate more and more power to the Chief Executive or do we desire to preserve the American form of government?"

TODAY, AT THE AGE of 89, Alf Landon notices: "The two main issues I outlined are still major issues facing our country today ... unlimited inflation resulting from deficit spending and the enormous increase in the size and power of the federal government..."

THE VOTERS DID IT again in 1964, when they made the mistake of electing Lyndon Johnson by a landslide over Barry Goldwater.

There was a popular Broadway musical in the 1950s, "Call Me Madam," in which the star said:

"Boy, the American people sure scare the hell out of you sometimes."

BARRY GOLDWATER

'Throw the Rascals Out?' It's No Longer Possible

By SEN. BARRY GOLDWATER

Ask yourself the following: Why do governments change? Why do we have new administrations? Why do we occasionally see a switch in political affiliations of national administrations? There is one answer to these questions: The changes occur to reflect the will of the qualified voters of the United States.

When the people of this country become dissatisfied with the kind of government they are receiving, they go to the polls and vote to oust the officials responsible. In the old days in the United States, they had a battle cry which reformers used to defeat entrenched and unpopular officials and administrations - "Throw the rascals out." And this is pretty much what happened throughout the history of American politics. When governments change and there is a massive turnover in administrations, it's because the people are voting against the "ins" rather than for those attempting to replace them. There have been exceptions - most notably when the political party opposing the incumbent party fields a national war hero as a candidate. The year 1952 and the election of Gen. Dwight Eisenhower over the nominee of the long-entrenched Democratic party is a case in point.

SO WE HAVE the will of the people being expressed in the election of new administrations. We have the concern of the people reflected in the elections of new officeholders, new policymakers. But the question is whether the people's will, the people's concern, the people's officially stamped request for a change in direction can ever be completely realized under the present system of bureaucratic management.

I do not think that it can be. I do not think that the will of the people and the intent of Congress go deep enough into the places where most of the policies directly affecting the people are made. Given the intricacies of the system, the attitude of those in permanent positions, and the general confusion surrounding any change of command in an enterprise as vast as the federal government, I do not think it is possible for this job to be done with any degree of success. The official oriented to the philosophies promoted by the Democratic party have been in control too long, their numbers are too great, and their influence too strong to bring about within a short time any substantial change in the governmental matters that cause our people so much concern.

I CAN ASSURE the reader - and this can be attested to by any member of Congress who keeps an accurate count of the mail he receives from his constituents from week to week - that this concern among our people has increased tremendously in the past few years, and it became evident long before Watergate. My office mail, though about average for a senator from a state the size of Arizona, was extremely light when I first came to the Senate in 1953. Of course, it increased enormously prior to 1964, largely because of my nomination as the Republican presidential candidate.

But even allowing for Arizona's growth in population and for my status as a one-time candidate for president, my office mail today is at least three times heavier than it was during the fifties, and it reflects a greatly increased concern for America on the part of the people of my state.

And Arizonans are certainly not unique in their concern. The uneasiness of all the American people over the problems of government has been steadily and visibly mounting. Therefore, the need for reasonable control of the federal bureaucracy is growing more imperative.

Lake County Democrats Plan Golf Day

High School Pupils Report Next Week

Antioch Community High School matriculation of students will be held next week with matriculation for seniors on Monday, Aug. 23, juniors on Tuesday, Aug. 24, and sophomores on Wednesday, Aug. 25. The classes will "self-schedule" and pay fees on the above dates. Freshmen, who have been computer-scheduled, will pick up schedules and pay fees on Thursday, Aug. 26.

Matriculation is only for students who are enrolled and have selected courses. New or re-entering students must come in prior to the dates shown and select courses in order to participate.

All students who have previously selected will be available.

The first day of school is Tuesday, Aug. 31, with juniors and seniors attending from 8 a.m. to 11:23 a.m.

Freshmen and sophomores will attend from 12:10 p.m. to 3:55 p.m.

All students will be on a full schedule beginning Wednesday, Sept. 1.

DUNK TANKS are becoming more and more popular at Antioch funfests. For example, at Sunday's Moose Lodge picnic, Bob Bock took the plunge. It was only part of the barrel of fun that Moose members and their families had during their annual frolic at Williams Park.

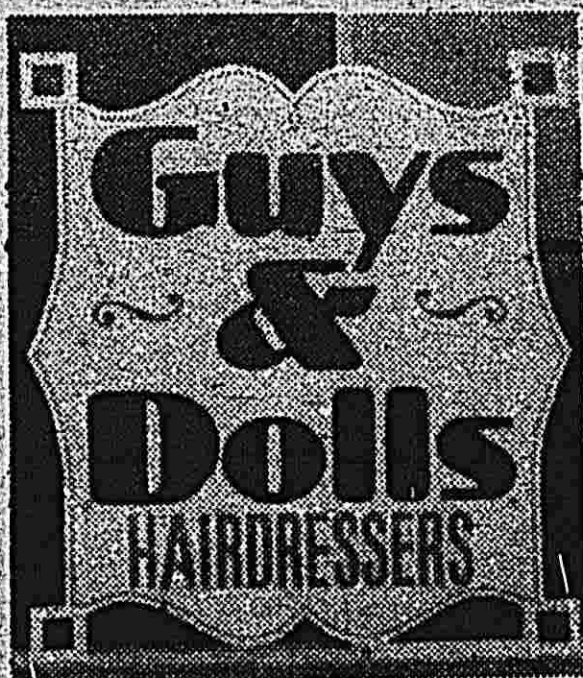

Voter Registration Dates Are Outlined

Marilyn Slater, deputy registrar for Antioch township, is informing Antioch township residents that there will be a special primary election held for this district on Tuesday, Sept. 14.

"Therefore, registration for voting must be stopped 28 days prior to any election, which means Monday was the last day to register," she said.

"Registrations will then resume Sept. 16 until Oct. 4 for the Nov. 2 general election. Please remember if you wish to vote in the Nov. 2 general election you must register between Sept. 16 through Oct. 4," Mrs. Slater said.

The pavilion will be the largest in northern Illinois, 125 by 180 feet, and have bowling alleys, pool tables, soda fountain, lunch counter and check room. About 5,000 people will be nicely handled. Parking space for over 1,000 cars will be laid out.

The uncertainty of baseball was again demonstrated Sunday at the Antioch Ball Park when the Libertyville team won a slugging match, 9-7. Village Officials Busier Than You

If you think you're busy, you should be one of the people who are running this town.

Antioch village officials had a jam-packed agenda at their Monday night meeting, and their next gathering on Tuesday, Sept. 7, promises to be even busier.

On Sept. 7, bids will be opened for the North Ave. sidewalk installation, the Orchard St. public walk and paving improvements, and the construction of water main extensions for the new village well.

On Oct. 4 the village board will open bids for the well's 500,000-gallon elevated water storage tank and, on Sept. 20, bids will be opened for the Sequoit Creek sanitary sewer replacement project.

THESE ARE just a few of the projects facing the trustees and other village officials.

Trustee Ronald J. Cunningham sat in the mayor's chair at Monday's meeting, since Mayor Robert C. Wilton was in Kansas City as an alternate delegate for President Ford at the Republican national convention.

Permits were approved for Dalgaard Foods to use the Williams Park pool and picnic area on Sunday, Aug. 29; and for the World Famous Village Pub to use the Little League area on the same day.

THE NEW water tower is expected to be built on the property of the Lakes Area Advertiser on Rt. 173. Village officials will meet Friday with officers of that firm to discuss easements and the kind of structure planned.

Village engineer Frank Angelotti said he is excited about "well water tests" made in the area, because the iron content of the water is unbelievably low and in "goodly supply." He urged the trustees to pursue acquisition of the site.

The village attorney was authorized to apply to the state for a permit to clean and deepen Sequoit Creek and create a pond for the bicentennial saw mill project.

The creek would be cleaned

THE ORCHARD ST. project, from Hillside to David St., calls for repaving the street, putting in sidewalk, curb and gutter, and a system of storm sewers and catch basins.

Bids must be received by Sept. 7 and trustee Mike Haley said he plans to ask for a meeting on Monday, Sept. 13, to award the bids.

Cunningham said the village safety committee has moved to

More State Aid For Schools

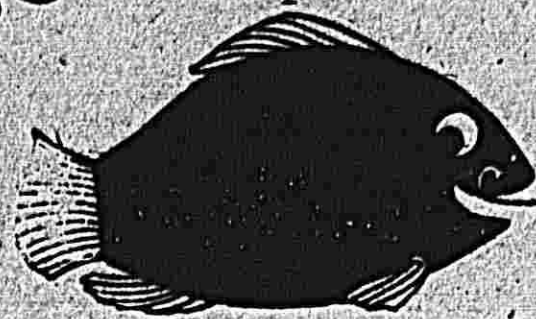

School districts in suburban Cook County and the surrounding metropolitan area counties would receive about $46 million more than last year under Gov. Dan Walker's proposals for general state education aid.

Lake County received an estimated $41,219 in 1975-76 and would receive $47,939 in 1976-77, an increase of about $6,174.

The Town Crier

THE POWER went off in Antioch for more than a half-hour Sunday morning, as most of you know.

It was kind of spooky downtown. There were no stoplights and, when the power goes off, the burglar alarms come on. You could hear them ringing at Antioch stores.

Among those who became a little concerned were Jim and Phyllis McMillen, and their son-in-law John Kakacek and his wife, Ann. They were getting ready to celebrate Jim and Phyllis's 50th wedding anniversary and about 250 people were expected.

No telephones, no electricity ... all that food to heat and keep refrigerated.

But, soon, everything was back to normal and the McMillens had a great day.

"It was just such a perfect thing," said Phyllis. "Just a golden day from morning till night. Of course, we all started praying a little harder when the electricity went off. But it turned out perfectly."

The event for Antioch's former mayor and his popular bride of 50 years was supposed to last till 6 p.m., but friends stayed until 10.

The Waukegan News-Sun had an excellent feature story on Jim and Phyllis last Saturday and focused on their wonderful sense of humor.

And isn't that one of the main ingredients that keeps a marriage happy for 50 years?

VILLAGE CLERK Marilyn Sterbenz and some of the trustees are working on the "codification" of village ordinances.

At first, hardly anyone knows how important that is.

But Andrew C. Lynch, village attorney, pointed out Monday night that it is best to have all village ordinances in "one book," no matter how large.

"The rules of order are pretty ancient," he told the village board at its Monday meeting.

"For example, most of you have been out of order all night. The rules say that if you address the mayor you are supposed to stand up."

Diane "Willie" Schmidt, one of the trustees, mentioned an old law that says, "Every new store that comes into town is required to have two hitching posts."

Village Board

keep the parking meters in the downtown area and that a parking ordinance will be drawn up at the next meeting of that committee.

HALEY SAID he felt that bids "were pretty high" on the Anita St. storm sewer project. He asked to reject all previous bids and advertise for new bids because, he has learned, using a different type of pipe could save the village thousands of dollars.

Trustee J. Irving Walsh moved that starting next May the mayor's salary be raised from $1,200 to $2,000, the village clerk's salary from $600 to $900, and the three trustees to be elected in April to receive $1,500 a year. The motion passed 5-0.

Some trustees now receive $900 and others $1,200. Eventually, in Walsh's plan, all six will be paid $1,500.

A Dixon, Ill., firm was awarded the village's "signing project" for $2,381, and a Springfield firm will provide the posts for $4,091. New "regulatory" signs, such as "Stop" and "Slow" will be paid for by a federal grant.

A "SKY HAWK CESSNA" made a forced landing on the Paul Ferris farm near Antioch Saturday. A pilot and one of his passengers were injured in the wreck near the Antioch airport. The pilot, John Elliott, 29, of Richton Park, was admitted to St. Therese Hospital, Waukegan, in satisfactory condition. A passenger, Carol Sowinski, 27, of Chicago, was treated for minor injuries and released. Two of the passengers, a father and son from River Forest, were not hurt. Lake County Sheriff's deputies said Elliott told them he was forced to land the single-engine airplane about 1,000 yards north of the airport runway when he failed to gain sufficient power on takeoff. Along the way with ANNIE MAE

I hope I didn't confuse you last week when, in my haste as I wrote this column under deadline pressure, I made an unfortunate slip of the typewriter.

I referred to the little "courtyard" behind our offices at 950 Main St. and mentioned the loose garbage lying around.

Most people I talked with, fortunately, realized I wasn't referring to The Courtyard Antiques and Artware, which is right around the corner at 384 1/2 Lake St. As you probably know, Joan Larson, the owner, has a neat and charming spot there. And if you haven't seen it, you really should drop in.

Actually, the place behind our group of buildings could be a lovely "courtyard," too ... if some of the tenants weren't inconsiderate about their trash.

We certainly aren't referring to Rudy Eckert's building either. One of Antioch's VIP's, Rudy naturally keeps 952 and 954 Main St. in very immaculate condition. And wouldn't you know? ... it was Rudy who was out there cleaning up the mess last Wednesday and Thursday.

WE ALSO have been meaning to compliment and congratulate Erickson's Sewing Center on the attractive appearance of its new store at 384 Lake St., just one door west of the sewing center's former location.

T. EARLE Somerville renewed his Antioch News subscription from Roswell, New Mexico, and included a note for us:

"Carter is the MAN," said Earle.

ANTIOCH MAYOR Robert C. Wilton left last weekend for the Republican national convention in Kansas City. He is attending as an alternate delegate for President Gerald Ford.

Just before he left, the mayor winked at us and said:

"Keep an eye on the village board while I'm gone."

HEAR TELL the annual Moose Lodge picnic attracted a huge crowd to Williams Park Sunday. The folks devoured 1,000 hot dogs, Bob Bock tells us.

It was Dave Zikus' idea to have a dunk tank as part of the fun, and we understand there are a couple of pretty sick Moose Club members today ... seems they caught cold from all the dunkings they took. Stiff and sore, too.

LOTS OF OUR best friends are having birthdays, so we must congratulate them here and now, or else run out and buy a box-full of greetings cards.

Gladys Fish celebrated her birthday last Friday and Vicki Mikula, Warren Polley's secretary, celebrated yesterday. (Funny we didn't run into her. We usually see Vicki every Tuesday night.)

Ken Wierschem will be 29 (or whatever) this Saturday and happy birthday this Sunday to Jerry Smouse, Les Zitkus and Gus Costoff.

Earlier this month we missed Brendan Teeley's first birthday. His big brother Christopher is now 4 and his parents, of course, are Mike and Chris Teeley.

WE JUST HEARD that Lloyd (Red) Murrie, township supervisor, had an operation. Hope he's feeling a lot better by the time he reads this. Red is too nice a gentleman to be on the sick list.

Congratulations to Shirley Berkiel of 903 Hillandale, who won the beautiful chandelier at the grand opening of the new Candlelight Galleries store. If you haven't seen Phil and Bev Adesko's lovely new store, stop in at 111 Rt. 173 (just east of Dick Verkeyn's Firestone store.)

MAYBE YOU SAW the big sign in their window. Clarence

HELEN AND JOHN VAN HILST

Van Hilsts Celebrate Golden Anniversary

John and Helen Van Hilst will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary today (Aug. 18).

They now reside in Rainbow Lake Manor in Bristol, but were residents of Crooked Lake, Lake Villa, for 20 years.

John is retired from the C.T.A. in Chicago, and Helen from Abbott Laboratories, North Chicago.

They have two daughters, Delores Soellner of Bellwood, Ill., and "Willie" Schmidt of Antioch; six grandchildren, Ricky and Renee Soellner, Jeff, Jerry, Jenny, and John Schmidt, and one great grandchild, Eric Soellner.

Not Kung Fu, But Gung Fu

The College of Lake County is adding a new non-credit course for the fall semester entitled "Tai Chi Chuan," the internal Gung Fu system.

Tai Chi is an ancient health exercise based on very slow harmonizing movements combined with diaphragm breathing techniques. Tai Chi is supposed to promote the physical well-being of an individual, concentrating on the health of internal organs, balance, good poise, and on an external attitude of gentleness.

The effect on the body is supposed to gradually influence the mind, producing mental equilibrium and tranquilization. It reportedly slims down the obese and builds up the underweight by toning the muscles and relaxing tensed nerves in a natural way.

Tai Chi Chuan will meet on Saturday mornings from 10 a.m. to 12 noon and run for 14 weeks, beginning on Sept. 11. The course fee is $20.

Registration will be (today) Wednesday from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. and 5 to 9 p.m.

For further information, persons can call the continuing education office, 223-6601, extension 350.

Lutz of the Fix-It Shoppe and June Lutz (Art of Hair) had a baby girl, Sara Beth on Friday, Aug. 6, at St. Therese hospital. Pretty little Sara Beth weighed 6 lbs. 14 oz. and promises to be a real heartbreaker in about 16 years. And a little charmer in the meantime.

The proud grandparents are the John Hortons of Antioch and Al Lutz of Ingleside.

LAST, BUT certainly not least, we want to congratulate Jerry Pfarr, editor of the Antioch News, on his lucky acquisition of a lovely young bride, Janice Besson.

Jan and Jerry were united in marriage by their friend, Pastor Philip O. Laurin of St. Stephen's Lutheran Church, and his words made the ceremony both meaningful and beautiful.

The ABC's of Travel

XYZ FARES - The airlines are at it once again. Seems now they are all doing their own thing. This great bargain can be of help to you families planning a trip prior to school starting.

This is a 4 to 9 passenger group travel fare going East. On this special fare only 48 hours notice is needed for reservation and ticketing which is better than the one and two-week special "see America fares."

Travel is not permitted between 12 noon Friday and 12 noon Saturday and from 12 noon Sunday to 12 noon Monday. All members of the group must travel together for each portion of the trip in the same aircraft.

Return travel from the outward destination can not commence earlier than 12:01 a.m. local time of the third day in addition to the date of departure from the point of origin. All travel must be completed not later than midnight on the 30th day following the day of departure.

As you can see, these fares can apply to families or even business clients with different last names and give substantial savings. Maybe the public still doesn't understand, but our income comes from commissions paid by carriers; not from fees added on to customers' bills.

Your ticket costs no more from us than it does from the airlines. Why not give a call and let us know what your needs are? You are our people and we will take time out to inform you of the best possible fare. A little mistake can cost you dollars.

Astro-Analysis

By Sonia

ARIES [March 21-February 19] - An inclination to splurge on luxury items can cause some strain on the budget. Try to determine what is necessary before overspending. Work on improving financial affairs.

TAURUS [April 20-May 20] - Ambitions should be foremost with you now so aim high. Personal ingenuity helps to gain admiration and assistance from others.

GEMINI [May 21-June 21] - Although energy level is high, you may be faced with certain limitations. Keep professional matters in strict confidence as there's a chance for misunderstandings now.

CANCER [June 22-July 21] - Fortunate experiences can come through friends but don't lean too heavily on the know-how of others. Rely on your own abilities to get things accomplished.

LEO [July 21-August 21] - A strong determination to work independently prevails. Don't act in haste, however. Being impulsive now may require you to give additional attention to details later.

VIRGO [August 22-September 22] - New possibilities relating to philosophy and culture may offer a chance for self-betterment. Educational pursuits stand an excellent chance for a good outcome so get involved.

LIBRA [September 23-October 21] - Your main interest now lies in the concern of the monetary affairs of financial conditions of a partnership or business associate.

SCORPIO [October 23-November 21] - Postpone the transaction of important deals if possible; there's too much chance for opposition at present. Concentrate on creating goodwill and increasing popularity.

SAGITTARIUS [November 22-December 20] - Use care not to overdo, especially where matters of employment are concerned. Don't overtake more responsibilities that you can amply take care of.

CAPRICORN [December 21-January 20] - Don't gamble on uncertainties although you are more of a chance-taker now. Invest in opportunities which have been given special attention.

AQUARIUS [January 21-February 19] - Domestic matters may require more of your time and attention. If you're contemplating a change be sure to talk over your ideas with other family members.

PISCES [February 20-March 20] - Attend to all correspondence matters and details; also a good time to take short journeys. Clear up pending matters with neighbors and kin.

Who Can Beat Watson At Lake Geneva?

Dave Watson, late model stock car point leader at the Lake Geneva Raceway as well as two other Wisconsin tracks, recently scored his sixth straight 30-lap feature race win on the quarter-mile asphalt track there.

Toft-Auto Racing, promoters at the Lake Geneva Raceway, have now placed a bounty on Watson that could earn any driver up to $300 if he wins the feature over Watson.

To be eligible, the driver must "time trial" in the top five spots and Watson must finish in the top five at the end of the feature.

Each week the starting bounty of $100 goes unclaimed, another $50 will be added until the maximum of $300 is reached.

Watson, from Milton, Wis., has won nine features at the Lake Geneva Raceway and 20 at other Wisconsin and Illinois tracks.

He has 17 wins overall at the Lake Geneva Raceway and has broken the track record three times this season.

Last year, Watson won only two features at the Lake Geneva Raceway. This is his first year in the Nielsen Enterprises 1976 Camaro from Lake Villa.

LARRY HICKS, Lake Geneva, a former champion in the late model stock cars at the Raceway, finally returned to the winner's circle Saturday as he took the lead on the last lap of the 30-lap feature race for the late model stock cars.

Hicks just barely stayed ahead of fast-time qualifier John Baumeister, Burlington, through that final lap and with Bob Werner, Jefferson, pressuring Baumeister for second, it was one of the closest three car finishes of the season for the late models.

Point leader Watson is expected back this Saturday night. That will be the first test of any driver trying to beat Watson and claim the bounty "money" that has been posted.

Sets Track Record At Lake Geneva

Larry Leach, Elkhorn, set another new track record in time trials at the Lake Geneva Raceway Sunday night. He also won a heat race but could only manage second place in the 25-lap feature won by Jerry Straube, Waterford.

The new record for Leach was 17.49 seconds and wiped out his own week-old mark of 17.67.

There were several yellow flags necessary in the 25-lap feature but none helped Leach get the advantage over Straube, who took the lead from J.P. Weinke, Bristol, who finished third.

Leach made a last lap bid for the win and was close, but collected only second place money for his efforts.

In spectator stock car racing, Tom Hack, Burlington, had his hopes for a sweep taken away when Randy Newberry, Burlington, won the heat over Mack, who had set fast time of 19.94 seconds and came back to win the feature over Newberry and Phil Bjerning, Genoa City.

THE CALIFORNIA INN, west of Antioch on Rt. 173, was heavily damaged by fire and smoke last Thursday night. Antioch Fire Chief Charles (Tod) Maplethorpe said the men had to fight the fire from 10 p.m. till 12 midnight. Maplethorpe said several firemen were treated for smoke inhalation, but were okay. Rescue squad volunteers were at the scene and the Fox Lake fire department also was called in. Maplethorpe said the cause was "of a suspicious nature" and that the state fire marshal's office is investigating. (Photo by Paul Maplethorpe.)

Lindenhurst Driver Wins

Carmen Manzardo of Lindenhurst returned to the winner's circle at the Kenosha County Speedway Saturday night in the 25-lap Kenosha County Fair championship race.

His last feature win was at the same time a year ago for the annual "Fair Night" super-modified stock car races.

In victory circle, he was greeted by long-time Speedway fan Diane Hansche, Bristol.

Diane had attended the stock car races as a small girl cheering for her then "favorite," Bill Bohn of Bristol. Saturday was her winning night. She had been elected queen of the 1976 Kenosha County Fair and presented Manzardo with a kiss and trophy. She also promised the crowd that she would try to get Bill Bohn back for at least a visit soon.

Manzardo set fast time in qualifying and worked his way forward in the "green all the way" 25-lap distance to take the lead from Dal Wikel, West Allis, on the 18th lap. He had a five car-length advantage at the end.

Rounding out the top five were Gary Dye, West Allis; Dave Bliss, Huntley and Bill Klein, Burlington.

This week, following all other events, a special mechanics race will be held for super-modified stock car drivers. These men frequently drive the cars in warm-up laps while packing the track, but seldom have the chance to run at "racing" speeds.

gravel pit south of Wadsworth.

There was a trailer fire behind the Carey Electric store on Main St. at 3 p.m. last Saturday. The trailer, used for storage, was only slightly damaged, the chief said.

The Antioch firemen also were called to a farm near the Antioch airport when a plane crashed there last Saturday afternoon. A picture appears on page 9.

ture races at the Lake Geneva Raceway Friday night, just as the super-modifieds were on the track ready to take the green flag.

The super-modifieds as well as the spectator stocks will complete their feature races following time trials this Friday night, and that will give fans double features in both divisions.

THE JAYCEES of Antioch took 50 boys and girls from the area to Chicago's Wrigley Field for a baseball game last Wednesday. They are shown above in the stands, with members of the Jaycees along with the youngsters.

The young fans were treated to a slugfest as the world champion Cincinnati Reds beat the Cubs 13-10 in 10 innings.

This was the Jaycees' fourth annual trip for the children. Plans for next year already have begun.

Local businesses helped sponsor the trip, including Foremost Liquors, donating soft drinks; and Bill Georgeson of the World Famous Village Pub, who supplied the hot dogs.

Teresi Chevrolet, Lyons-Ryan Ford and Dodge of Antioch helped the Jaycees defray expenses of the trip. The First National Bank donated the cost of the bus.

Jaycee chaperones were Chuck and Barb Spillner, Sheila Eisen, Larry Meyer, Tom Kedzie, Lou Korum, Terry Corey, John Christiansen and Bill Anderson.

Dost 2nd To Zeisse At Wilmot

John Dost of Antioch posted the second fastest qualifying time for late-model sportsman stock cars Sunday night at the Kenosha County Fair.

In the races at Wilmot Speedway, Dost was timed in 21.53 seconds, only an instant behind top qualifier Ken Zeisse of Union Grove, Wis., who turned the track in 21.49 seconds.

Zeisse then won the 25-lap County Fair championship race with Dost finishing ninth.

Zeisse scored a near sweep of the events Sunday night. He finished a close second to Sid Norton of McHenry in the fast heat race.

Three other drivers had the lead before Zeisse took over from Tom Barker, Caledonia. Scott Dahlberg, also from Union Grove, led the first lap and then Dave Silmer, Silver Lake, took over for several laps before he got too high on the fourth turn and Barker came underneath him for the lead. Silmer finished a fading seventh as Mike Klemko, Bristol, closed on Zeisse at the finish to take second.

Barker was third and Chuck Ostergaard, Bristol, took fourth ahead of Jim Zwirgzdas, Pad dock Lake.

The race was non-stop and saw no yellow flags. In victory circle, when joined by his wife, Ken said that except for a spot in the third turn the track was in great shape.

"It was a tough night and I was tired, and might not have been able to race in the lead much longer," Zeisse said.

Young Races To 200th Win At Waukegan

Ray Young won his 200th career feature Saturday night in a wild night of late model and hobby stock car racing at the Waukegan Speedway.

Young took the feature lead from Phil Mass in the 16th lap and raced on to the milestone win. Earlier Young had been involved in a heat race accident and was a doubtful starter for the main event.

For Young, who set the fastest qualifying lap Saturday evening, it was his 49th feature win at the Waukegan track where he has twice been champion ('69 and '70). Young's career started 22 seasons ago at Raceway Park in Blue Island and he has won seven area championships.

The cool night was full of unexpected thrills, including a roll-over, numerous late model crashes, a head-on crash and a fire.

Bob Dotter saw his point lead diminished when his engine blew and caught fire in the feature race.

Saturday night racing continues at Waukegan through Sept. 4 with the late model season championship to be decided Monday night, Sept. 6 in twin 50-lap feature races.

Next Saturday night a powder puff derby will be held for the ladies in hobby cars.

Next Sunday the super-modifieds will be joined by the mini-champ cars, hobbies and another "Beat-Your-Neighbor" contest.

SPORTSMAN'S CORNER

Finding undisturbed grassy nesting cover has not been an easy task for wildlife during the past 15 years, but an agreement last winter between the state departments of transportation and conservation already has proved to be a tremendous aid in providing this needed habitat.

Transportation officials agreed to mow only to the ditch line on rural two-lane highways, leaving the backslope of these roadsides undisturbed to grow grass cover. Wildlife biologists feel the program could result in more than 8,500 pheasant nests, or an estimated 100,000 more birds.

"The benefit of the program has been two-fold," said conservation director Tony Dean. "The department of transportation saves gasoline, equipment costs and man-hours, and nesting sites are provided for most types of ground nesting wildlife."

In the past, meadows, pastures and fields of oats and wheat provided nesting opportunities for wildlife. However, with increased emphasis on corn and soybean production, this type of wildlife habitat rapidly disappeared.

A SPECIAL nine-day teal season will be held Sept. 11 through Sept. 19.

Blue-winged, green-winged and cinnamon teal can be taken between 7 a.m. and 4 p.m. daily, with a bag limit of four per day and eight in possession after opening day.

"Teal are early migrating waterfowl and large numbers move through Illinois in September on their way to wintering grounds in Central and South America," said Dean. "The majority of the birds will have passed through the state by the time the regular waterfowl season begins, and the special season provides additional hunting opportunities to waterfowlers."

Every hunter not exempt by law must have state and federal migratory waterfowl hunting stamps as well as a valid hunting license.

Dean cautioned hunters to make sure they can identify teal before the season begins.

"The wood duck population will be high during September and these birds often are mistaken for teal by inexperienced hunters," he said.

"Conservation police officers will intensively patrol teal hunting areas and mistaken identification will not be a valid excuse for killing a wood duck out of season," Dean added.

THE ANTIOCH JAYCEES beat the Firemen Sunday in their second annual softball game. Here, Larry Meyer tries to score as Ronnie Vos of the Firemen attempts to tag him. In the background, that's George Pahlke playing third base. The Jaycees won 16-9. Last year they won 24-22 after trailing 12-4. Said one of the Jaycees: "Three or four Firemen were limping when they came off the field. I guess they aged more in one year than we did."
